to Helen 5 June 1977

As of May 17, 1977, Mary is waiting, still, for verification of the following Hagerstown records:

Mr. Fry: March 21 1977: Van Lear Kershner's death record is listed in a cemetary in Conococheague Dist. No. 13, page 222. Is this the Church of the Brethren? If not, what church?

March 31 1977: she requested three birth record documentations. He has not returned her checks, nor answered, but told Bill Kershner to ~~xxxxxxxxx~~ tell her to write to Mrs. Schwartz. She has done this, but no replies yet. Fry said the records from 1785 to 1900 did not get in the books prepared by Mrs. Greenwood. Needed:

To Soloman Kerschner and Barbara Ridenauer, son Soloman b. 29 June 1799

To Daniel Kershner and wife Barbara, William Belsch Kershner b 27 Nov. 1803

Need Parents of:

Ann Kershner b. 8 Oct. 1833, Wash Co Md

John S. (or John J.) Kershner b. 15 Jan 1830, Wash Co Md.

David Kershner: (about 80) unable to find grave of Josiah in Mt. Tabor Cemetery--most of the stones are gone. Mary got him to send the name of the pastor of the Church of the Brethren, and she has written him, but no reply. Need to verify this cemetery record of Josiah Kershner, since he (b. around 1801, I think I remember) was the father of Van Lear Kershner, whose descendants still live in Hagerstown. It looks like the falling-out in the family over Elias Kershner, (Josiah's father), was over a defection to the Church of the Brethren, so this is important.

(Fortunately, Mary has been checking out the family stories, for the Virginia descendants of Soloman Kershner b 1799 said his granddaughter was Jeanette Rankin, the famous suffragette. Mary located Jeanette's descendants, who gave her the correct parents--they lived in Oregon and definitely were NOT Kershners--, then she read censuses and found Margaret Rankin--Soloman Kershner's daughter--in Adair Co. Mo. Absolutely no truth to the story, just a similarity of names. So she has been saved from publishing wrong information, which is embarrassing, to say the least. I think her persistence in tracking down documentations is much to be commended. Soloman's is another of the lines still living in the Hagerstown area.)

MARINERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION
Marion and Jack Kaminkow. Records of the privateersmen who played an important part in the Revolution, as compiled from British data on those men who were captured and imprisoned in England. Brief biographical data is given. 1967, 247 pp., $10.00

GENEALOGIES OF VIRGINIA FAMILIES: Family History Articles from "The Virginia Magazine of History and Biography"
From 1893 to the 1950s this was the leading periodical on Virginia family history. This marvelous set brings together all the family history articles from this important source from its beginnings down to 1977. A tremendously valuable reference. 1981, 5 Vols., 5,000 pp., index, $150.00

EARLY MASSACHUSETTS MARRIAGES PRIOR TO 1800: with Plymouth County Mariages, 1692-1746
Frederick W. Bailey and Lucy H. Greenlaw. The most complete collection of early Massachusetts marriages ever published; contains over 20,000 entries for the period 1643-1800. Four sections cover: Worcester County; Plymouth County; Middlesex, Hampshire, Berkshire, and Bristol counties; and Plymouth County again as transcribed from the first volume of the records of teh Inferior Court of Common Pleas and an unnumbered volume of the records of the Court of General Sessions. (1897-1914) reprint, 661 pp., index, $27.50

THE OLD FAMILIES OF SALISBURY AND AMESBURY, MASSACHUSETTS: with some related families of Newbury, Haverhill, Ipswich, and Hampton, and of York Co., Maine
David W. Hoyt. One of the classics of New England genealogy covering in great detail the families of the lower Merrimack Valley. In addition to the genealogies of several hundred families, frequently covering five or six generations, Hoyt included hundreds of pages of source records. Among the latter are church records for the period 1720-1800, including some for which the originals have since been lost. This is a complete edition of the work which originally appeared in several parts, and has been out of print for many years. 1982, 1097 pp., index, $45.00

NEW JERSEY MARRIAGE RECORDS, 1665-1800
Wiliam Nelson A cornerstone of New Jersey genealogy; originally published as Vol. XXII of the "Archives of the State of New Jersey." Contains about 15,000 alphabetically arranged marriages - nearly all before 1800. (1900) reprint, 678 pp., $35.00

GENEALOGIES OF PENNSYLVANIA FAMILIES from "The Pennsylvania Genealogical Magazine"
Intro. by Don Yoder. All the genealogical articles from 1895 through 1980 with complete indexes. Also includes all Bible records and genealogical fragments. Nearly 200 articles on families of English, Welch, Scotch-Irish, German, Dutch, and French origins who settled in Pennsylvania or the Delawre Valley. 1982, 3 Vols., 2,894 pp., index, $105.00

ONTARIO MARRIAGE NOTICES
Thomas B. Wilson. This collection covers two periodicals, "The Christian Guardian" and "The Church," for the period 1830-1856. It supplements without duplication Reid's "Marriage Notices of Ontario." 1982, 435 pp., index, $22.00

THE ROLL OF BATTLE ABBEY
Annotated by John B. Burke. The Roll contains the names of several hundred of the noble companions of William the Conqueror. It is thus the very first document in Norman-English geneaology and the foundation of both spurious and authentic claims of Norman ancestry. The annotations provide an account of the origins of each companion and his relationship to the Conqueror, a description of his baronies and estates, an assessment of his position in the feudal hierarchy, and a concise history of his life and times, with general attention given to successive generations of his lineal descendants. (1848) reprint, 127 pp., index, $9.50

IMMIGRANTS TO NEW ENGLAND, 1700-1775
Ethel S. Bolton. A consolidated listing of 2,250 immigrants; it is alphabetically arranged and has places of origin and settlement, dates of removal and arrival, date of marriage, and names of wives and children. (1931) reprint, 235 pp., $15.00

MARRIAGE NOTICES, 1785-1794, FOR THE WHOLE UNITED STATES: Copied from the "Massachusetts Centinel" and the "Columbian Centinel"
Charles K. Bolton. Most of the entries are for New England, but there are some from all the original colonies and Ohio. Data given includes age, occupation, notation of previous marriage, date, place, and citation to source. About 5,000 people are named. (1900) reprint, 139 pp., index, $10.00

GENEALOGICAL RESEARCH IN NOVA SCOTIA
Terrence M. Punch. An excellent guide to Nova Scotia with chapters on getting started, using printed sources, using original records, and pulling it all together into a polished piece of research. 1983, 3rd ed., 136 pp., bibl., index, t10.00

STATE CENSUS OF NORTH CAROLINA, 1784-1787
Alvaretta K. Register. Recently compiled from original records this valuable source lists 14,000 heads of household with statistical data on family members. (1971) reprint, 233 pp., index, $15.00

EARLY VIRGINIA IMMIGRANTS, 1623-1666
George C. Greer. A list of immigrants who were not original patentees; nearly 25,000 names from records in the Virginia State Land Office. A valuable supplement to Nugent's "Cavaliers and Pioneers." (1912) reprint, 376 pp., $18.50

SWISS AND GERMAN PIONEER SETTLERS OF SOUTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA: Historic Background and Annals
H. Frank Eshleman. The major emphasis is on Lancaster County genealogy and the emigration from the Palatinate in the 18th century. Substantial sections are devoted to lists of early settlers and biographical sketches of Pennsylvania Germans. (1917) reprint, 386 pp., index, $20.00
